UPD provides safety escorts twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. This service provides students, faculty, and staff with walking or motor vehicle escort between locations on campus. Safety Escorts can be requested by calling UPD at (318) 342-5350.

The University periodically distributes crime bulletins or alerts to inform members of the University community about incidents of crime in the areas surrounding the University that may pose and imminent threat of harm to members of the community. Bulletins and alerts are also circulated at times, not in response to a specific incident, but as a general reminder to community members about measures that members of the community may take to enhance personal and property security.

All new employees receive training on Sexual Harassment and Title IX through several offices and during annual faculty and staff in-service programs. The University authorities also provide new employees with information concerning issues of safety and personal awareness on such subjects as emergency preparedness.
